On the ball with the Manager

Welcome to today's visitors Bristol City who come to Burnden after beating Manchester City last weekend.

We lost our third game in a row on Saturday when the only goal of the game cost us the points against fellow strugglers Stoke City. It was the second consecutive defeat by the single goal, coming straight after our disappointment in the 'derby' game against Manchester City here at Burnden Park.

These results see us firmly anchored at the foot of Division One and it doesn't need me to tell you that we need points desperately.

Against Manchester City we had the chances to have earned at least a point, but Steve Daley, City's record-breaking signing, got the goal which saw us lose our first game at home this season.

It was terribly disappointing to lower our flag at home for the first time because this is where we have been picking up the points both this season and last.

Prior to that game we had won one and drawn six of our home games. Admittedly, that is no formula for success, but when you consider that in those drawn games we were unlucky not to score the goals that mattered, we could have been in a much healthier position.

We haven't had the breaks this season so far, but that is how it goes when you are having a bad run.

It is high time we got the rub of the green and let's hope we start today against our visitors Bristol City.

That defeat at Stoke last week put Alan Durban's team six points in front of us. Had we won, the gap would have been just two points and the picture would have looked a great deal brighter.

As it was we made a mistake which cost us the only goal and with the way things have been going lately it was difficult for the players to lift themselves and get back into the game.

What is needed now is for everyone connected with the club to pull together and battle to get out of this position.

I will battle, the players will battle and I hope I can rely on the supporters of Bolton Wanderers to get behind the team.

Welcome to BRISTOL CITY

Bristol City have spent much of their current spell as a First Division club within the shadows of relegation and, though performances this season suggest they should keep clear of danger, the situation is so close at the moment that they know they must not relax for a moment.

Last season, when they finished 13th, was their best since their return to the First Division in 1976 and they kept well clear of trouble throughout the season. But there were several departures at the end of the campaign and manager Alan Dicks had to re-shape his side for this season.

A player of the calibre of Norman Hunter is bound to be missed. Though he had reached the veteran stage of his career, the former England centre-back put his enormous experience to good use for City and it was his steadying influence in the middle of the defence that was largely responsible for keeping the club in the First Division when the situation had looked desperate.

Hunter's contract expired and he left on a free-transfer to Barnsley where he rejoined his old Leeds United pal Allan Clarke. City also lost another centre-back, Gary Collier, who joined Coventry for £350,000 though he was not, in fact, a regular member of the City side last season.

Another close-season departure saw former England left-back Terry Cooper who moved across to join Bristol Rovers as player-coach. Again, Cooper had not been a fixture in City's side during his closing months with the club.

Towards the end of last season Mr. Dicks signed Finnish international forward Pertti Jantunen for £50,000 and Dutch midfield player Geert Meijer for £98,000 to bring a continental look to the Ashton Gate scene, but neither has been able to hold a regular place. More recently the manager added former Everton defender Roger Kenyon to his staff.

Geoff Merrick has now regained his place in the centre of defence where he plays alongside David Rodgers. Gerry Sweeney and Clive Whithead normally fill the full-back positions with John Shaw in goal.

When Whitehead was absent earlier this month, both Kenyon and Don Gillies came into reckoning for the left-back position. And former Bolton Junior Alan Hay got a couple of games at centre-back when Rodgers was unavailable.

City received a big blow when key midfield man Gerry Gow was out for several weeks through injury. Kevin Mabbutt, normally a forward, came back into the side in a midfield role for a time, partnering Trevor Tainton, Jimmy Mann and Tony Fitzpatrick in this department.

One of Bristol City's major problems has been lack of punch in attack. Because of their position in the table, it is natural that they should play it fairly cautiously, with four men in the middle of the field, but their two strikers haven't been getting the service they need to improve the situation.

Consequently, City have managed to score more than twice in a game on only two occasions so far — they won 3-1 at Leeds in the League and defeated Stoke City 4-0 in the League Cup at Ashton Gate.

Apart from that triumph at Leeds, City's only other away win so far was at Aston Villa (2-0) in August. They drew at Everton (0-0) and Crystal Palace (1-1) but lost their remaining away League games at Coventry (1-3), Ipswich (0-1), Liverpool (0-4) and Middlesbrough (0-1).

They enjoyed a good run in the League Cup. After ousting Rotherham United (2-1 on aggregate) in the second round, they drew 1-1 at Stoke and then won the replay 4-0. Though they put up a magnificent performance in drawing 1-1 at home to the holders Nottingham Forest in the fourth round, they were well beaten 0-3 in the replay.

Alan Dicks may feel he will have to go into the transfer market again if the club remains in danger of relegation, though he desperately wants to see more money invested in ground improvements at Ashton Gate. "I would like to see our fans given better facilities but there is no way I can do that just now", he says.

"My main priority is keeping the club in the First Division and I'm sure our supporters would prefer it that way at this particular moment in time".

Joe Royle

Chance of Cup Glory

In a season which promised so much at the beginning, it now looks as if Bolton Wanderers' only real chance of glory lies in the FA Cup.

Already out of the League Cup, beaten in a two-leg second round tie by third division Southend United, Wanderers have tasted Cup disappointment once to often this season.

And with the League scene shaping up into an all-out fight to avoid relegation, only the FA Cup is left.

Although the FA Cup trail begins early in the season for the hundreds of non-league clubs, last week saw the first of the Football League teams make their assault on the coveted trophy.

The Third and Fourth Division sides went into the first round proper of the tournament. Many were paired together, but some had to face "hiding to nothing" ties against less-distinguished opposition.

HIGH HOPES

Traditionally it is the non-Leaguers who snatch the glory in these early rounds and once again the FA Cup produced its giant-killers.

Non-League Altrincham, formerly of the Northern Premier League and now of the newly-formed Premier Alliance, is a club with high hopes of a place in the Football League in the not-so-distant future. They were drawn at home to near neighbours Crewe Alexandra.

Crewe, the club which has Wanderers' keeper David Felgate currently on loan, are bottom of Division Four and their plight was made even worse as Altrincham gave a 3-0 trouncing although David didn't play.

Such giant-killing acts are always on the cards. The non-leaguers dream of a good Cup run to boost their coffers, and if they can manage to fight their way through rounds one and two there is always the chance that in the third round they can earn a plum tie against one of the top League sides.

One can look back to the recent past when Wanderers - in Division Three in those days - had to account for the likes of Bangor City and Ramsbottom United to avoid a great deal of embarrassment.

SHATTERED

There are always the other side of the coin though. Last week for instance, Tranmere Rovers, also of Division Four shattered dreams of AP Leamington and rammed nine goals past the luckless Leamington keeper.

But the FA Cup will always harbour dreams of glory for the part-timers and there are the glowing examples of Wimbledon, Hereford and Wigan Athletic, - teams whose giant-killing acts went a long way towards winning them Football League status.

These clubs serve as reminders to the part-timers of the goals that can be achieved.

Wanderers make their bow in the competition in January when third round games are played.

Let us hope they get off to a better start than last season when they crashed out in the third round - beaten if you remember, by today's opponents Bristol City.

CONSOLATION

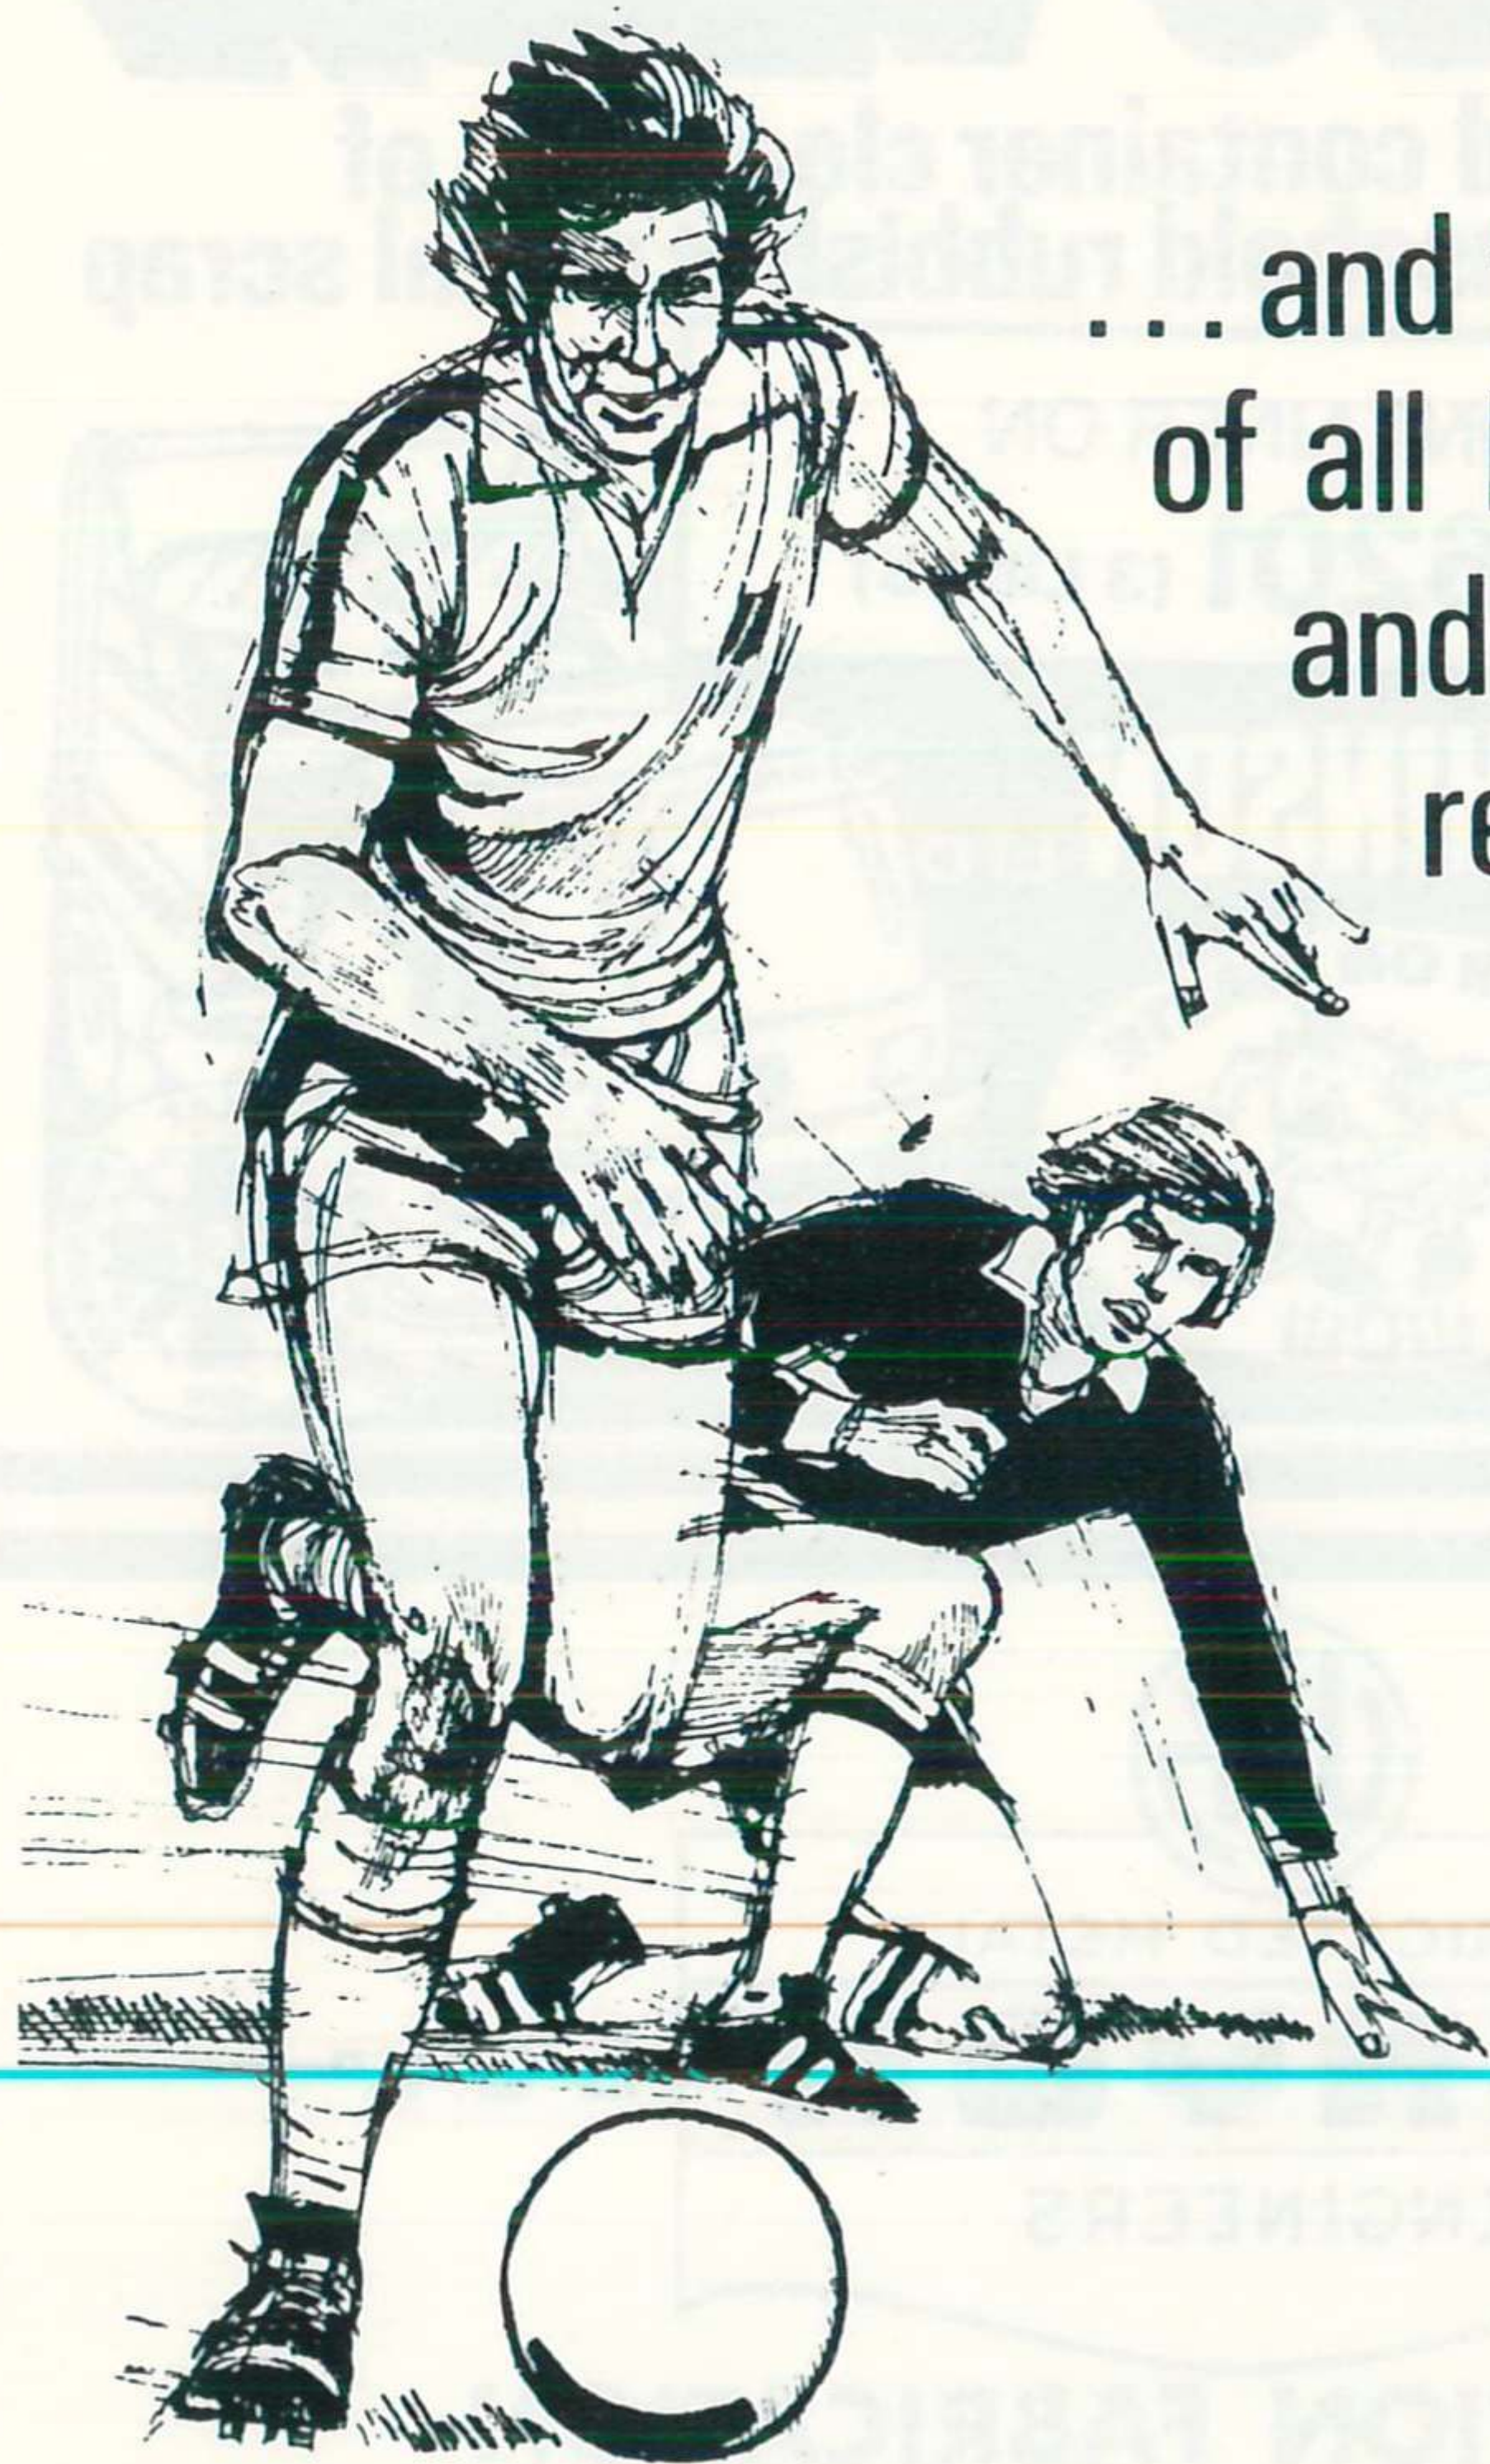

The score on that day at Ashton Gate was 3-1 with Brian Smith getting Wanderers' consolation goal.

Wanderers are renowned for their FA Cup traditions. Many say they are long overdue a good run in the Cup. The success of 1958 is a long time gone.

Let us hope that 1980 brings a welcome turn of fortune with the white shirts of Bolton Wanderers gracing the Wembley turf once more.

JOHN SHAW (Goalkeeper) John spent his early years with Leeds United, though he didn't get into their League eleven. He spent a couple of years in the reserves after signing for Bristol City in 1974 but he has been on regular duty for the past three years.

GERRY SWEENEY (Defender) Gerry didn't get into the first-team at Celtic but a transfer to Morton in 1966 saw him quickly prove himself in the Scottish League. He was picked for the Scottish League XI and in 1971 he moved on to Bristol City.

DAVID RODGERS (Defender) David has been a City professional since July 1979 and he made his first League appearances in 1970/71. After holding his place for two years, he dropped out in 1974 and it wasn't until last season that he really began to establish himself again.

GEOFF MERRICK (Defender) The departure of Norman Hunter to Barnsley, during the last close-season, enabled Geoff to regain the first-team spot in the middle of the City defence. He didn't get a single game last season but before that he had made more than 300 League appearances for the club.

CLIVE WHITEHEAD (Defender) Clive has made a most unusual switch of positions. Until the closing weeks of last season he was always known as a ball-playing outside left. Now he has been converted into a most successful left-back. He made his League bow for City in 1973/74.

ROGER KENYON (Defender) This former Everton defender recently made a League come-back with City after a spell in foreign parts. Over the years Roger gave Everton splendid service, completing more than 300 first-team appearances for them until leaving Goodison last February.

DON GILLIES (Defender) Versatile Don has not been holding a regular place this season, though he recently re-appeared at left-back. He has also played in midfield and attack. Indeed, he was Morton's top scorer for two seasons before City paid £30,000 for him in 1973. He later topped City's scoring list.

GERRY GOW (Midfield) Gerry's injury-enforced absence has hit City hard for he has been a key figure in their midfield for almost ten years now. His powerful performances earned him recognition by the Scottish under-23s and he has now played over 350 League games for the club.

TONY FITZPATRICK (Midfield) Bristol City paid a club record £225,000 to St. Mirren for Tony last summer. He made his first appearances for St. Mirren in 1973/74 and he was capped on five occasions for the Scotland under-21s.

TOM RITCHIE (Forward) Tom has on two occasions been City's top scorer — he led with 12 last season — and he is currently one of the leaders again with five goals, four of them from penalties. He first joined City as an amateur and made his League bow in 1972 against Millwall.

KEVIN MABBUTT (Forward/Midfield) Kevin, an England youth international, has varied between attack and midfield this season. He was just 18 when introduced to City's first-team in 1977 and last season he gained a regular place. He is the son of Ray Mabbutt who made more than 400 appearances for local rivals Bristol Rovers.

JOE ROYLE (Forward) Former England centre-forward Joe scored four goals on his debut for City against Middlesbrough, following his £90,000 transfer from Manchester City two seasons ago. Joe won six England caps and was on four occasions top scorer for Everton before moving on to Manchester City for £200,000 in 1975.

PERTTI JANTUNEN (Forward) Pertti, a Finnish international on 27 occasions, scored on his first full appearance for City on the opening day of this season but he later lost his place. This is the second time he has left Finland. He initially went to Spanish club Malaga but returned to Eskilstuna and that club received £50,000 when he joined City in March this year.

TREVOR TANTON (Midfield) Trevor is now one of City's longest-serving players, with more than 400 League appearances behind him. He initially surfaced into the first-team pool in 1968.

JIMMY MAN (Midfield) Jimmy got only two opportunities in Leeds United's League eleven during his years at Elland Road but a move to Bristol City in 1974 saw him gain almost immediate selection and he has been a member of the side ever since.

CHRIS GARLAND (Midfield/Forward) Chris is in his second spell with City, the club who gave him his start in League life in 1967. During his first spell at Ashton Gate, Chris was capped by the England under-23s and he was sold to Chelsea for £100,000 in 1971. Four years later he moved on to Leicester for £100,000 and City paid £110,000 to take him back to Ashton Gate three seasons ago.

GEERT MEIJER (Midfield) Geert was signed from Ajax, of Holland, for £98,000 last March and celebrated his City debut with a spectacular goal against Birmingham. Before joining Ajax, Geert played for D.W.S. Amsterdam and stayed with that club when it amalgamated to form F.C. Amsterdam.

First Division Focus

Nottingham Forest were beaten as often in November as they were in the whole of last season!

Following three successive League defeats something that hadn't happened since their return to the First Division in 1977 Forest's title hopes have taken a bit of a knock and this week there has even been speculation about the future of manager Brian Clough.

It is natural, of course, that critics should gloat over any failures that might come the way of Mr Clough. As usual, the whole situation has been grossly exaggerated for Forest are still wonderfully placed to win a unique quadruple.

Forest are already through to the quarter-finals of both the European Cup and the League Cup. In spite of their recent slips, they are still only four points behind the First Division leaders and next month they will commence their attempt to win the F.A. Cup.

After the 1-4 defeat at Derby last Saturday, Mr Clough admitted that: "Maybe the management have not been working hard enough. Maybe a change would be beneficial?"

He may have been saying this with tongue in cheek, though it is known that he has had some disputes with the club committee. And, having won almost everything possible with Forest, perhaps he would relish a fresh challenge elsewhere?

Who knows? But the events of the next few weeks will probably give us some indication as to his future plans. If he has grown bored with the City Ground, then he will have no shortage of offers elsewhere. But if Forest should gain a spanking victory over Arsenal this afternoon then we can surely put the events of the past few weeks down to one of those lapses suffered by even the greatest of clubs at times.

One First Division side that has been enjoying the reverse sort of luck is Coventry City. The Sky Blues have taken five magnificent points from their past three games after beating Leeds United 3-0, then scoring a similar victory away to Wolves and, last Saturday, by holding Crystal Palace to a goalless draw at Selhurst Park.

The Coventry revival coincided with the return to the side of striker Mike Ferguson and defender Gary Gillespie. There's no doubt that fellow striker Ian Wallace is twice the player when Ferguson is alongside him and these two have scored all six of the club's goals over their past three games.

Ferguson's return, after injury had ruled him out of the previous seven League games, was celebrated with two goals against Leeds, even though he was replaced before the end. He also scored twice against Wolves so, all being well, we should see quite a few more goals from this lethal partnership.

Southampton were hit by a first-half whirlwind at Ipswich where they found themselves three goals down in half-an-hour. Though they recovered their composure, they never looked capable of getting back into the game and it wasn't until the dying moments that Steve Williams pulled back a goal for them.

There's no doubt that the return, after such a long injury-enforced absence, of Kevin Beattie has done wonders for Ipswich and the First Division's leading scorer, Phil Boyer, never got a look in. But, with Kenny Dalglish missing an absolute sitter for Liverpool at Highbury, Boyer kept his three goal lead at the top of the First Division scorers' chart:

	League	L.	Cup.	Euro.	comps.	Total
Boyer (S'hampton)	12	3		0		15
Dalglish (Liverpool)	9	3		0		12
Sunderland (Arsenal)	7	3		2		12
Stapleton (Arsenal)	6	5		0		11
Hodde (Tottenham)	9	1		0		10
Johnson (Liverpool)	9	0		1		10

Glenn Hoddle's storybook England debut against Bulgaria highlighted by one of those long-range goals for which he has become famous this season tended to overshadow the first England appearance of Kevin Reeves.

The Norwich striker had a much quieter game than Hoddle, and got few mentions, but he did nevertheless make a very impressive start to his international career.

Reeves contributed a number of the deft flicked headers which have come the hallmark of his game for Norwich and, once he has had the experience of a few more international games behind him, has the potential to become as big a star as Hoddle is certain to be.

Pierce O'Leary could shortly be joining his brother David in North London, though the indications are that they will NOT be teaming up at Arsenal. The brothers have distinguished themselves as the Republic of Ireland's dual centre-backs in the last two internationals and now Tottenham are hoping to sign the younger brother.

Spurs asked Shamrock Rovers if Pierce could join them for a trial period but this was refused. Now Shamrock are believed to be asking a fee of £250,000 and that would easily smash all previous records for the League of Ireland.

M6 south to intersection 12, junction A5 (76 miles)

A5 for 1 mile (follow 'Wellington' signs) to Gailey, junction with A449 (77 miles)

A449 to Wolverhampton (85 miles).

Entering Wolverhampton on the A449 (Stafford Road) take the second exit on the roundabout into Waterloo Road North. Wolverhampton Wanderers' ground, Molineux, is on your left in about ½ mile.

Wanderers Travel Club

Travel facilities to away games are again available through the official Wanderers Travel Club to members who produce their membership card when booking and carry their card on all coach or rail trips.

Membership of the Travel Club for the coming season is now being accepted by the promotions office and costs just 50p for the year (free for agents).

A passport size photograph is all that is required along with the membership fee. Support your team and follow the Wanderers with the official Travel Club.

But remember — membership does NOT guarantee a seat. You must book early in the week to be sure of travelling.
